THE FLAG OF THE EIGHTY-FIRST.

The most notable work is Henri Buad's "The Flag of the Eighty-first." The colors of this French regiment had been captured by the Germans, but the survivors in a desperate charge regained them.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing
 the Past Week—General
 News Notes.

Division 3 will meet next Monday evening.

Division 1 will meet next Thursday evening.

South Bend wants the Indiana State convention.

Ladies' Auxiliary dance at Schreiber's Hall next Friday evening.

Thomas Shelley and Michael Collins, of Division 1, still continue sick.

South Bend Hibernians will celebrate on March 4 in honor of Robert Emmet's birthday.

Members of Division 1 should attend the next meeting, which will be full of interest.

Omaha Hibernians will hold their St. Patrick's day celebration in Creighton Auditorium.

The St. Patrick's day entertainment committee is now arranging a programme for that day.

Any division that desires may send delegates to the Irish race convention to be held in New York City on March 3, 4 and 5.

Every member of the order should assist the St. Patrick's Day Committee in making the celebration a credit to the order.

The Hibernians of Cortland, N. Y., will celebrate St. Patrick's day with a banquet, when several prominent speakers will be present.

Division 1 of Omaha will initiate a class in the near future. The officers are after about 500 young men eligible to membership.

There is much activity among the Hibernians of Utica, new members being received and the divisions and auxiliaries working together.

After fifty candidates were taken into the Ladies' Auxiliary at Dayton, Ohio, the members and guests took dinner at the Phillips House.

Major Joseph Berry, of Division 6, was the unanimous choice for Grand Marshal of the St. Patrick's day parade in New York City.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of William, Conn., has a balance of $2,371 to the credit of its free bed fund in St. Joseph's Hospital.

Ladies' Auxiliary 4 of Baltimore one of the largest in the South, celebrated St. Brigid's day with an elaborate banquet at the Hotel Joyce.

The initiation of 625 candidates into the order last Sunday was the occasion of a Hibernian rally such as Chicago has not witnessed in a decade.

The County Board of Directors have decided to celebrate St. Patrick's day in Cincinnati with a lecture and entertainment on Sunday evening, March 19.

St. Brigid's day was celebrated by the Ladies' Auxiliary of Columbus, Ohio, with a splendid entertainment of music, song and oratory in the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium.

The Ladies' Auxiliary County Board of Syracuse will have Mrs. Ellen Ryan Jolly and Mary C. Connelly as honor guests at the annual banquet at the St. Cloud on February 24.

EUCHRE AND LOTTO:

The young ladies of St. Francis of Assisi parish, on the Bardstown road, are busy with preparations for a euchre and lotto on the afternoon and night of Wednesday, February 16.

Besides numerous prizes there will be an interesting entertainment and an excellent lunch.

The ladies and Father Rothbeut invite all their friends to spend the evening with them.

HAS WELL WISHES.

J. Dawson Byrne, the famous Protean actor, on Thursday of last week gave an interesting and instructive programme consisting of character sketches from England's greatest novelist, Charles Dickens, and impersonations of well known vaudeville artists, to the pupils and many friends of Holy Rosary Academy.

Among the character sketches were Uriah Heep and Daniel Peggotty from "David Copperfield," the old grandfather from "Old Curiosity Shop" and Bill Sykes from "Oliver Twist."

This is Mr. Byrne's last appearance in work of this kind, as his candidacy for the priesthood is announced, and his ordination is to take place in May.

Louisville wishes him well in his holy calling.

COMING EVENTS.

February 7-10—Carnival at Trinity Council Club House, Baxter and Morton.

February 10—Euchre and lotto, St. Augustine's church, 1308 West Broadway, afternoon and evening.

February 22—Two days' Lenten entertainment for St. James church, at school hall, Edenside avenue.

March 1 and 2—Mackin Council euchre and lotto at club house, Twenty-sixth street.

RECENT DEATHS.

Mrs. Elizabeth Schuh, a lifelong resident of this city and a respected member of St. Charles parish, died Sunday night at her home, 2515 Cedar street, after an illness of two weeks.

Surviving her are the following children: George, Charles, Albert and Auguste Schuh.

Also, C. B. Graham and Miss Sallie Pope Schuh. Her funeral was held Tuesday morning from St. Charles church, Rev. Father Raffo officiating.

Heart disease caused the death of Miss Eloise Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Simmons, 544 Longfield avenue.

Miss Simmons was stricken while in Washington the last week in November. Besides her parents she is survived by three brothers—E. P. Simmons, of Terre Haute, Ind.; W. W. Simmons, Jr., and Thurston Simmons, and two sisters, Misses Ida B. and Octavia Simmons.

The funeral was held Tuesday from Holy Name church, Rev. Father O'Connor conducting the services.

By the death of Charles Stilger, which occurred Tuesday night at his home, Goss and Dixon avenue, St. Vincent de Paul's church suffered the loss of another of its most faithful and respected members.

For many years the deceased resided in the southeastern section of the city and was President of the Elco Contracting Company.

His wife and three sons, William, Robert and Raymond Stilger, survive him.

The funeral was held yesterday morning, Rev. Father Thome being the celebrant of the solemn mass of requiem.

The funeral of Daniel Murphy was held Monday morning from St. Aloysius church, attended by many mourning friends.

Mr. Murphy was born in Ireland but had long been a resident of this city, living at 1038 Hamilton avenue.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Mary Murphy, and two sons and four daughters.

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Sweeney, widow of Richard Sweeney, will be held this morning from the Sacred Heart church.

Mrs. Sweeney died Wednesday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Whitman, 2012 West Broadway.

She was for many years a resident of the Sacred Heart parish and leaves several children, all grown.

ENTERTAINS TRUSTEES.

The Rev. Father William V. Boland, pastor of St. Simon's church at Washington, Ind., and well known in New Albany and Jeffersonville, entertained the old and new members of the Board of Trustees at a sumptuous dinner at the parochial residence on Thursday evening of last week.

Father Boland has been doing excellent work for the church and has the friendship of people of all creeds in that section of Indiana.

The new Trustees for the ensuing year are William Kennedy and Thomas Hart.

PLAN NEW SCHOOL.

The ladies and gentlemen of St. Leo's church plan an entertainment before the opening of Lent, the proceeds to be used in establishing a fund for the erection of a new school.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Of our little son, Daniel Hallahan, who died February 1, 1915:

In the graveyard softly sleeping, Where the cypress branches wave, Lies our little darling keeping Silence in the narrow grave.

There he sleeps and no tomorrow Wakes him in that silent home, There he rests, no sign of sorrow Clouds with grief his rural home.

Our darling boy, our hearts are sad Since God took you away, Your soul in peace went up to God One year ago today;

And yet you dwell where angels live, In God's bright home above, And prayers go up for you to God, Blessed by your parents' love, Parents, Brothers and Sisters.

IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.

Damage to the extent of $1,500 was caused by fire on the premises of Andrew Murphy, the draper, Enniscorthy.

The people of Knocknanny parish have presented a handsomely illuminated address to the Rev. P. Soden, V. G., Manorbham.

At a meeting of the Kerry County Council resolutions were passed against the censorship of letters addressed to the Bishop of Kerry and to nuns.

M. F. Dillon, Claremorris, has presented a magnificent set of gates to be hung on ornamental pillars for the Mount street entrance of the new church.

The deep regret felt in Connemara at the death of Rev. Patrick Gleeson, Roundstone, was indicated by the large attendance of priests and laity at the obsequies.

A beautiful new crib has been presented to Meath Hill church by Mrs. Fitzsimons, Drumgill. The same lady made a similar presentation to Drumconrath church some years ago.

The Killarney Guardians passed a resolution regretting the death, and conveying sympathy to the relatives, of John Lawlor, Drumconrath, a former member of the board.

There was only one case of drunkenness at the Thomastown monthly Petty Sessions. The district comprises four police stations and a radius of six miles from Thomastown.

Rev. Michael R. Rea, Ballycotton, has passed away at the age of fifty-eight, after an illness of six months. He had been prior to his transfer to Ballycotton curate at Aghado and Fermoy.

The death is announced in Longford of James and John Dunne, father and son. James Dunne, who was aged sixty-two, was the father of the Rev. E. Dunne, of Ardagh, County Longford.

The estate of the late Nicholas J. Downes, solicitor, Mullingar, is valued at $229,975. He left $5,000 on trust to each of his nieces, half of $2,500 for masses and half to the poor of Westmeath.

While in the act of taking some timber wreckage from the cliffs at Roscomber, Patrick Hayes, aged thirty, was washed out to sea. The heavy sea running at the time rendered all attempts at rescue impossible.

As a result of heavy rain the Owenmore river has overflowed its banks to a very serious extent, and hundreds of acres along its course are under water. Never within living memory have the floods been so extensive.

The death of Rev. Father Antonius Boyd, O. P., at St. Magdalene's, Drogheda, removes a very familiar figure from the town. He had reached the patriarchal age of eighty years, and was held in the highest esteem by all who had the pleasure of knowing him.

Very Rev. Canon Flannery, Killarney, at a local Gaelic League meeting, in protesting against the proposed withdrawal of the grant for teachers' classes said such action would have a most damaging effect on the teaching of Irish and on the training of teachers.

A resolution condemning the proposal was passed. Much regret is felt in Drogheda and district at the death of the Rev. T. Cassidy, Monasterboice. The late Father Cassidy, who was a native of Louth, was educated in the University of Salamanca and was ordained in 1875. He labored as curate in Dungannon and Dundalk until his appointment to the pastorate of Monasterboice in 1892.

CATHOLIC FEDERATION.

The regular monthly meeting of the Catholic Federation takes place Thursday night at the Knights of Columbus hall on Fourth avenue.

Thursday night there was a conference of the officers and Executive Committee, who will make a report at the meeting. President Ganz and Secretary Dolan are looking for a large attendance of delegates and the appearance of a number of new representatives.

ST. LEO'S MISSION.

Rev. Father J. J. Fitzgerald, pastor of St. Leo's church, Highland Park, announces a mission to be given beginning Sunday, February 13, at the late mass.

The mission will be conducted by Rev. J. L. Finerty, of the Dominican missionary band, who is one of the most eloquent speakers in that order. There will be mission sermons, rosary and benediction every evening at 7:30 o'clock, and masses at 5:30 and 8 o'clock.

The mission will continue during the week, ending on Sunday evening, February 20.

BABY MARATHON RACE.

The Mackin three-mile baby Marathon to be given under the auspices of the Mackin Athletic Club on Washington's birthday is attracting much interest.

The Times has offered the first prize, a beautiful silver loving cup, and other prizes to be awarded are offered by the Mackin Athletic Club. They are a gold medal for the second, silver medal for the third, and a bronze medal for the fourth man.

The Mackin Council Club has put claim to the opinion that they have discovered a successor to Dr. J. H. Drayton, and it was hoped that the latter would remain this year in the running game.

The organization has developed several comers who are fitted to run a good race, and if form and health are still with them on the eventful morning they should be well in front at the race's end.

In co-operation with the West End athletic feature the Mackin lads are training for the relay and dash events for the Army meet, March 18. In other words they are of the sanguine expectation of being trained to the notch when time is called.
